APPENDIX

Signed by Governor
(January 15, 1985)

In Memoryof*Allan Shivers

Senator Barrientos offered the following resolution:

(Senate Concurrent Resolution 13)

WHEREAS, January 14, 1985, has been marked indelibly in the hearts and minds of the people of the State of Texas as the date on which the esteemed former Texas Governor Robert Allan Shivers ended his long and distinguished career to the State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, This monumental figure in Texas history will perhaps be best remembered as one of the greatest statesmen and political tacticians that the state has ever produced; and

WHEREAS, This outstanding gentleman distinguished himself by serving longer as Governor of Texas than any other individual; and

WHEREAS, Born October 5, 1907, in Lufkin, Texas, Governor Shivers grew up in Woodville where his father was the county judge; as a young man he worked for the Tyler County Messenger before moving with his family to Port Arthur; after graduation from high school in 1924, this remarkable gentleman worked his way through college as a railroad employee and a department store clerk; he received his bachelor of arts degree from The University of Texas at Austin, where he was elected president of the student body, and passed the bar examination in 1933 before graduation from law school; and

WHEREAS, In 1934 at the early age of 26, Governor Shivers was elected to serve the Senate of the State of Texas during the 44th Legislature; this extraordinary young man was reelected to that office and continued to serve during the 45th through 49th Legislatures as Senator, with the exception of a two-year military stint in Africa and the European theatre during World War II; and

WHEREAS, In 1946 this astute politician was elected Lieutenant Governor and was reelected to a second term in 1948; due to the untimely death of Governor Beauford Jester, Governor Shivers became the first Lieutenant Governor to succeed a Texas Governor who had died while in office; after completing the former governor's term, Allan Shivers won three elections and served a record seven and one-half years as Governor of Texas; and

WHEREAS, Shivers's ideas, practices, and techniques of leadership were probably most significant in turning the office of Lieutenant Governor in the direction it has since taken; and

WHEREAS, During Shivers's 10 years as Lieutenant Governor and as Governor, the state reformed public schools, upgraded the prison system, set up mental health facilities, began a massive highway building program, and established water conservation as a state priority; and

WHEREAS, Texans are forever indebted to him for his courageous stand on the tidelands issue in the 1952 national election; and

WHEREAS, After leaving office in 1957, Governor Shivers remained active in higher education through The University of Texas and in business; he was appointed by former Governor Preston Smith in 1973 to The University of Texas Board of Regents, serving as chairman for four years;

primarily responsible for securing a $5 million grant in 1980 from the Houston Endowment Foundation, an endowed chair in journalism was named in his honor; and

WHEREAS, In 1975 this charitable gentleman generously donated his historic Woodlawn mansion to The University of Texas at Austin for use in raising funds for the law school; and

WHEREAS, In addition to his tireless devotion to the State of Texas, Governor Shivers gave unstintingly of his time and talents to numerous civic, religious, and philanthropic organizations including: the United States Chamber of Commerce, Export-Import Bank of the United States, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children, and Capital Area Radiation Foundation; and

WHEREAS, Maintaining an office in the Interfirst Bank Building, he served on the board of directors of Interfirst, Texas Commerce Bank, Celanese Corporation, Frontier Airlines, Dresser Industries, Lone Star Industries, Texas Gulf, Global Marine, and Citizens State Bank in Woodville while managing his own multifaceted business endeavors; and

WHEREAS, The entire State of Texas will profoundly miss this much loved and revered elder statesman; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 69th Legislature of the State of Texas hereby pay tribute to the remarkable life of service of Governor Robert Allan Shivers and extend deepest sympathy on their grievous loss to his beloved wife, Marialice Shivers; his daughter, Marialice Sue Shivers Ferguson; his three sons, John Shary Shivers, Robert Allan Shivers, Jr., and Brian McGee Shivers; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be prepared for the members of his family, and that when the Texas Legislature adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Governor Robert Allan Shivers.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Jones and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator Barrientos and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.

In Memory

Mrs. A. M. Aikin, Jr.

Senator Howard offered the following resolution:

(Senate Concurrent Resolution 12)

WHEREAS, The 69th Legislature of the State of Texas wishes to honor the memory of the wife of the late Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr., Welma Morphew Aikin, an outstanding citizen of Paris and a selfless contributor to the beautification of Texas whose death on Wednesday, December 19, 1984, culminated an outstanding lifetime of leadership and service to her family, friends, community, and state; and

WHEREAS, This admired and respected lady was born October 2, 1908, in Oklahoma, the daughter of M. D. Morphew and Lula M. Sissel Morphew and married Senator Aikin on May 25, 1929, in Paris; she attended Paris Junior College and East Texas State University before receiving her master's degree from The University of Texas at Austin; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Aikin's name was synonymous with beauty in flowers and gardening in Paris, the state, the region, and the nation; though actively participating in garden club work throughout her lifetime, this respected horticulturist is perhaps best remembered for guiding 30,000 garden club members to raise funds for the relandscaping of the Governor's Mansion in Austin while she was president of Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., from 1965 until 1967; and

WHEREAS, In 1973, Mrs. Aikin was honored for her efforts to promote conservation and beautification with an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from East Texas State University, the first woman so recognized; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Aikin was known and respected for her sound judgment and leadership qualities during her years as a teacher of history and Spanish at DeKalb and principal in the Glory Rural School before her marriage; she served on the Texas Council for Higher Education and on the Paris Junior College Board of Regents from 1959 until 1963; she was also a longtime honorary member of Alpha Delta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma; and

WHEREAS, A devoted wife, Mrs. Aikin traveled with her husband to Austin each year for the legislative sessions during his 46 years of service; as past president of the American Literature Club, she presented talks on book reviews and on her recollections of her association with wives of Texas governors during her years of living in Austin; and

WHEREAS, A faithful and sincere Christian, Mrs. Aikin was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Paris, was an honorary member of its official board, and was active in the United Methodist Women, serving as a past secretary; she was also a member of the Mary Emma Bible Study Club; and

WHEREAS, The entire State of Texas will deeply miss this well-loved lady and outstanding contributor to the beautification of Texas; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 69th Legislature of the State of Texas pay tribute to the remarkable life of service of Mrs. A. M. Aikin, Jr., and extend deepest sympathy to her son, A. M. "Bobby" Aikin III of Commerce; and her four grandchildren, Robert, Matthew, Tracie, and Christopher; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be prepared for the members of Mrs. Aikin's family as a token of deepest sorrow and heartfelt sympathy, and that when the Texas Legislature adjourns this day, it do so in her memory.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator Howard and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.

Sister Carol Anne Messina

Senator Uribe offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 18)

WHEREAS, The State of Texas mourns the loss of an exemplary minister of Christ, Sister Carol Anne Messina, SCN, who died January 14, 1985; and

WHEREAS, One of the rare people who live the gospel of love every day of their lives, Sister Carol leaves behind a legacy of hope and courage to all those who knew her; and

WHEREAS, Born in Plainfield, New Jersey, on September 8, 1937, Sister Carol joined the sisters of Charity of Nazareth at the age of 30; and

WHEREAS, After taking her vows in July 1967, Sister Carol worked in a child care center, a psychiatric hospital, and an office of Family Services; and

WHEREAS, Becoming a social worker at Our Lady of Guadalupe in Raymondville, Texas, Sister Carol soon became enmeshed in the lives of the poor and homeless of the Valley; and

WHEREAS, Supporting economic and social justice for all, Sister Carol devoted her life to the struggle of the downtrodden farm workers of the Valley; and

WHEREAS, Joining the National Farm Worker Ministry in 1979, Sister Carol became an administrative coordinator for the United Farm Workers; coordinating legislative lobbying, Sister Carol was instrumental in the passage of the bill outlawing the short-handled hoe and the legislation including farm workers under the Workers' Compensation Act; and

WHEREAS, A member of the Texas Conference of Churches Farm Worker Task Force, Sister Carol helped organize the 7-day March for Wages in 1982 that focused attention on the subminimum wages being paid farm workers; and

WHEREAS, A seasoned political campaigner, Sister Carol helped organize successful political campaigns that ranged across the broad spectrum of the Democratic Party; and

WHEREAS, Her own deep commitment to her Christian faith and unflagging tenacity of purpose inspired many till-then despairing people who gained courage from her inspirational message of love; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 69th Legislature, hereby extend deep condolences to her mother, Emma Messina, and her brother, Richard Messina, on their grievous loss; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be prepared under the seal of the Senate as an expression of deepest sympathy from the Texas Senate, and that when the Senate adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Sister Carol Anne Messina.
